Job Panel: Creating a Job Search Strategy

Friday, November 16, 2018 | 2:00 PM - 5:00 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | CBC 123

Job hunting requires reflection, information, and conversation. It also requires a great deal of time, energy, and patience. When looking for a job, much of your success will depend on your approach and how well you are organized. Dr. Maida Watson and Dr. Renée Silverman have organized a Job Panel on the present job market with alumnae from FIU who have received their PhD's from our Department and have found jobs in the academic market during the past five years. They will share their experience and useful information to a successful job search in today's competitive environment. Students will have the opportunity to interact live with Panelists via Video Conference:

Dr. Angelica Nelson. Lecturer of Modern Languages and Classics. Ball State University. Indiana.

Dr. Svetlana Tyutina. Assistant Professor, Graduate Program Director at California State University, Northridge.

Dr. Zelia Frade. Assistant Professor of Spanish. Goshen College, Indiana.

Dr. Diana Grullón. Assistant Professor of Spanish. Illinois College.

Sponsored by the Department of Modern Languages, Modern Languages Graduate Student Organization (MLGSO) and the Center for International Business Education & Research (CIBER)

This event is free and open to the public. For more information, please call 305-348-2851.
