FIU in Spain
Summer 2016

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The FIU in Salamanca program offers students the opportunity to live and study in Salamanca, a charming college town known for its Renaissance and Baroque architecture. The program includes field trips to the medieval walled city of Ávila; Segovia, with a 2,000-year-old Roman aqueduct; León, which has Spain's most beautiful Gothic cathedral; Burgos, with the Museum of Human Evolution, unique in its kind; Toledo, influenced by the historical co-existence of Christians, Muslims, and Jews; El Escorial, the sixteenth-century palace and monastery; and Madrid, visiting El Prado, Spain's most important museum.

LOCATION DESCRIPTION
Salamanca is situated on the Tormes River, 110 miles northwest of Madrid. With a population of 165,000, Salamanca is home to the Catedral Vieja, the first major building from the Middle Ages, the Universidad de Salamanca, Spain's oldest university, and the Plaza Mayor, at the very center of Salamanca's social life, where every night hundreds of people gather to listen to the tinas or the student bands that still dress up in Medieval costumes.

HOUSING
All students will stay with Spanish families in Salamanca. The families provide three meals a day as well as weekly laundry service. These homestays give you the opportunity to practice Spanish outside of class, while providing valuable exposure to modern Spanish life.
