

HSI Pathways Fellowship Application

You are invited to apply for the Hispanic Serving Institutions- Pathways to the Professoriate program (HSI Pathways). The HSI Pathways program is a collaboration between eight partner institutions, aiming to prepare undergraduate students in the humanities and related fields to pursue a career in the professoriate through engaged mentorship and programming, opportunities to participate in research, a summer program focused on methodology in the humanities and social sciences, and a collaborative cross institutional conference focused on students' research. Undergraduate students in their third year are eligible to apply. Students must be majoring in one of the Mellon Foundation approved majors and should have demonstrated potential and desire to pursue a PhD with the intention of entering the professoriate. Currently, the Mellon Foundation does not have a policy that denies undocumented students from applying.

The Following is a comprehensive list of all the humanities and related social sciences majors that are approved by the Mellon Foundation.
