Alfonso Camín The Poet and the Sea

Poetry reading by Victor Puertodán on Alfonso Camín

Thursday, March 6, 2014 | 5 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | GL 220

Victor Puertodán is a writer, poet and literary critic of Cuban and Spanish nationality, residing in Valencia, Spain since 1998. Puertodán is the president and founder of the "Asociación Literaria Alfonso Camín" and the director of "Espaciarte Talleres Literarios" in Spain. A great admirer of Alfonso Camín, Puertodán has been studying the work of the Asturian poet for over 25 years. In 2012, he published a literary piece "Primer acercamiento crítico a la obra del Poeta de Asturias, Alfonso Camín." He then produced the musical album, "En Dos Aires" (2012) an album that harmonizes Camín's poetry. Both these pieces were sponsored by the Council of Culture of the Government of the Principality of Asturias (La Consejería de Cultura del Principado de Asturias.) Recently, Puertodán has participated in conferences in the Koubek Center, the Spanish Cultural Center, (Centro Cultural Español de Miami) and Asturian Center of Miami (Centro Asturiano de Miami.) Currently, Victor Puertodán is studying as a Scholar-in-Residence of the Cuban Research Institute (CRI) at Florida International University.

Co-sponsored by the Cuban Research Institute.
